I loved this book! It is true to Biblical teachings. It should be easily understood by children as young as two years old. The illustrations are appealing. And it has an aspect I view as very important when I choose books for little ones: I will enjoy it even when I'm required to read it three or more times a day! I received this book from a random giveaway sponsored by goodreads.

This was given to us as a gift. I can't stand the cartoonish illustrations. It looks like a South Park writer designed it. Otherwise, it's just alright. Edit: The book has a kind of puffy cover and has developed multiple cracks after barely any use.
