As a homeschooling mother of six I am always looking for ways to learn as a family. This gorgeous book, based on the old Douay Bible (most reliable translation), has 52 very manageable stories that walk the family through the whole Bible. The translation is extremely accurate and easy to understand for all. What a special way to keep "holy the Sabbath!" Once a week on Sunday evenings Dad reads Bible stories to the family from God's Book. In one year (52 weeks) we will have the joy of knowing we have given our children a precious gift... treasure in heaven. We hope to repeat this every year till they leave and pass this tradition onto their own children. Honestly, the illustrations are exquisite. This will become a cherished family heirloom. I am forever grateful to the author and illustrator. May God bless them for their efforts.

this item was in excellent condition, EXCEPT that it came with a significant bend in the cover. it had been folded over as it was put into the envelope to mail it. this didn't bother me, as it was for us and not a gift. but it was not in the condition stated.

Excellent in format...keeps interest of all ages. This is a good book to have in your Christian library for, again, is an easy (clear) read.

I teach 2 year olds and this book comes in handy to make sure my stories are Biblical. Checked this book out at the library and had to buy it.
