Good Night, Princess! is a new children's storybook featuring the famous Disney Princesses and what each Princess does before her bedtime. The stories are fun and enjoyable to read, like Tiana(from the Princess and The Frog)enjoying Louis playing a jazzy lullaby to help her sleep, and Rapunzel(from Tangled)brushing her hair over and over to get ready for sleep, and Snow White giving all the Seven Dwarfs kisses before it is time for sleep. This book is perfect for any Disney Princess admirer!

I purchased this for my grand daughter who thinks all things princess is the greatest. This is a very helpful bedtime routine book, pajamas, brushing teeth etc. Bright and colorful pages and all of the princesses that she recognizes. It is a good sturdy little book that so far has stood up to a six year olds abuse and still looks great. She has really enjoyed this little book which made it totally worth purchasing.

The content is easy for my 2-year-old toddler to follow. In fact, most of the things that the princesses in the book do before going to bed is also what my toddler does before going to bed. So my toddler enjoys reading them over and over.

My 2.5 year old daughter likes flap books but they usually have words or something funny underneath... These flaps just have the same (basically) picture and no words. This is definitely meant for a 1 year old or smaller.

A must read every night these days in our household. Usually I complain that these books are too short. However, at the end of a long day this is one that I don't mind reading because it is so short and my little girl wants to go to bed right after we read it!

I ordered this book sight unseen for my four-year-old granddaughter because like most little girls her age, she really likes the Disney princesses. It was a good choice. The book features all of the most well-known princesses, just a short amount of text on each page, and then a lift-up tab with an additional picture. It's a short book and also a book my granddaughter thoroughly enjoyed. I know she took it to bed with her for awhile. It works well for a before-bedtime story because of the subject and length. I'd recommend it for any preschooler who liked the Disney princesses.

My two year old daughter loves to read this book every night. She laughs and giggles at every page when we lift up the flaps. Great book and great quality and all little girls that love princesses will enjoy this book.

This is a perfect little book for bedtime. Not too long, gets the bedtime message across, loaded with princesses and their routines. More importantly my daughter loves it. It is paper so careful with the smaller kids but it is just as expected.
