Serena Williams (World Tennis Legends)

Synopsis

Winner of 21 grand slams, Serena Williams has captivated the world with her stunning match upsets, bold playing style, and even fashion savvy. Making a splash in the tennis world with her sister, Venus, she has gone on to win more singles, doubles, and mixed double titles combined than any other player competing today. Learn about Serena's childhood in California and how her fierce determination and intensive training led her to the top of the sport's ranks, despite challenges along the way. This engaging and informative book includes details of Williams's historic early career, vivid photos of her powerful playing on the court, little-known facts, and all the stats on the most famous woman in tennis.
