This 31 page (in my original paper booklet) teaching focuses on the 7 Levitical Feasts (Leviticus 23) which the Jews have celebrated thru the millennia, in their calendar year. Zola traces how this calendar of feasts was or will be fulfilled by Jesus and stands as a prophetic declaration of the events past, and yet to come for Israel and the Church. Christians as Zola correctly points out are not responsible to keep these feasts, but as he says, a knowledge of them greatly enhances our faith. And I may add, gives us greater understanding of the prophetic timetable of events. I encountered Zola about 30 years ago. I heard him speak just once in a small church in a small town. I've never looked at things the same since. Over the years I've enjoyed other authors on this subject, but I never saw it presented so briefly, the "Readers Digest" version. If you want to go further some very good longer books on the Feasts are available such as Ancient Messianic Festivals or The Feasts of the Lord: God's Prophetic Calendar From Calvary to the Kingdom and there are many more good ones just in paper book form too. This booklet started me off reading on the subject. Zola's value in this booklet isn't just the concise clear teaching, it is also the balance he displays returning the Jewish mindset and culture to the church that was originally there in the first century. Seeing thru Jewish eyes brings greater understanding of our faith, it's foundations.
