Customer Reviews

This pretty little book offers a powerful punch! I love the little catch phrase which helps drive in the scripture! There are 150 devotions to challenge, inspire and encourage my girls' relationships with Father God. The prayers help keep the conversation going and there is a scripture index to help them dig deeper or find that special Word when they need it. It would definitely be a good gift for students making the sometimes difficult transition from elementary to middle school, and those turbulent middle school years. It is the perfect size to pack in a pocket and bring with wherever the day may take them! These 3-minute devos would also make a great summer gift from a youth leader to students to build a firm foundation of the knowledge of God's love for them and develop their identity in Him. I can't wait to order them for my students!

This was a petite, but powerful book that offers inspiration for girls, showing them the love that God offers and provides daily ways to reaffirm their connection with God. I found the three minute thoughts to be well written for my 10 year old and she enjoyed the sayings as well as the daily prayers too. If you have a daughter that wants to grow in her own spiritual journey, this is a book that will definitely help with this. I highly encourage all to read and share this with all young girls today!I received this for review - all opinions are my own great book for my 10 year old granddaughter

It is perfect for my book for my eight year old. We review what each devotion means in our daily life.

Gave this as a gift to my daughter. She loves it and keeps it on her night stand.
